

In every Habitat home, you find the work and dedication of so many people, all working with a common goal: helping another family build strength, stability and self-reliance through shelter.

Who does it take to build a Habitat house? It takes everyone, and that starts with you!

Parts of a Home

Framing - creates the structure for a family's new beginning	$45,000
Foundation & Excavation - lays the groundwork where dreams can come alive	$35,000
Kitchen - where a family can prepare meals in sanitary conditions	$10,000
Siding - to protect a family against the elements	$15,000
Roof - under which a family will be dry and free from worry of its collapse	$6,000
Full Bath - where everything works properly	$5,000
Living Room - where a family can gather	$3,000
Parent's Bedroom - an adult space not shared with children who have no other bed	$3,500
A Child's Bedroom - a quiet place to sleep, study, and grow	$3,000
Boiler - Energy Star rated allowing a family to be warm at an affordable cost	$6,000
Dining Area - where a family can share meals, all together, at one table	$2,000
Hardwood Bamboo Flooring - a renewable natural resource which supports an allergy controlled space	$5,000
Tile Floor - a surface easily maintained by hard working families	$1,500
Stairs - safely connecting living spaces and sleeping spaces	$1,500
Front & Back Doors - doorways leading to work, school, play and neighborhood connections	$1,000
Gutters - to prevent water damage to the house	$800
Portable Table Saw - to assist us in building our houses for families in need	$800
Landscaping - creating a natural space to play, plant a garden, and beautify a neighborhood	$750
Compound Miter Saw - supports our capacity to a quality and affordable home	$600
Window, Energy Star - which will reduce a family's monthly utility costs	$500
Pallet of 2" x 4" Studs -the framing of the home	$600
Insulation for One Room - keeping moms, dads, and children warm	$300
Closet - which will be used for clothes instead of a place to sleep	$300
Pneumatic Hammer - to help us build faster	$800
Circular Saw - another tool that supports our building capacity	$150
Concrete, 1 yard - to help a family build a strong foundation	$125
Bedroom Door - the entrance to a private space	$100
Flower Box - adding a special touch to the home and the neighborhood	$100
Tool Belt - allows our AmeriCorps members to be ready for their year of service	$75
Porch Light - a safe and welcome beacon to return to at night	$70
25 lb. Box of Nails - helps hold it all together	$50
Kitchen or Bathroom Faucet - a working fixture for everyday life	$50
Light Fixture - shining light where a child can complete their homework	$50
Door Bell - a signal to open the door for a welcome guest	$40
Smoke & Carbon Dioxide Detector - ensuring a family's health and safety	$60
Paint, 1 Gallon - fresh paint for a fresh start	$30
Door Trim - beautifying the entrance to a special home	$45
Electrical Outlet & Switch - giving power to new dreams	$75
Welcome Mat - greeting friends and family	$20
Door Knob - opening the door to a better life	$15
Sheet of Drywall - on which to hang new memories	$18
Address Numbers - announcing the official place of the home	$7
Paint Brush or Roller - tools in creating a refreshed space	$15
Pair of Work Gloves - to help partner family members and volunteers build a home	$10
2" x 4" Stud -- framing a home with best wishes	$3
Sq, Foot of Plywood - protection from the elements	$1.50